HARRY DALTON

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - GENERAL MANAGER

Developing talent through his own farm system has always been one of Harry Dalton's strongest beliefs when seeking ways to build a contender. After seeing his latest crop of talent begin to flourish the past two seasons, Milwaukee Brewer fans should be in for plenty of excitement once again in 1989.

Dalton has seen his young Brewers become one of the best teams in baseball once again the past two seasons. In that short span, the Brewers have compiled a .549 winning percentage [178-146], the third best mark in the Eastern Division, the fourth best in the American League and the fifth best overall in baseball. The Brewers, who finished only two games behind, were the last team eliminated from the division championship last season, while compiling a .537 winning mark [87-75]. That performance followed one by his 1987 ballclub, which took the baseball world by storm by setting an American League record and tying a Major League record with 13 consecutive victories to open the season. The Brewers went on to finish with a 91-71 record (.562), the third best mark in the league and tied for fifth overall in the majors.

While veterans like Paul Molitor, Robin Yount and Jim Gantner are keys to the 1989 club, other players who were recently developed in the farm system will also be important to the club's performance. A pitching staff anchored by home-grown products like Teddy Higuera, Dan Plesac, Chuck Crim, Juan Nieves, Bill Wegman, Mike Birkbeck and Chris Bosio ranked second in the American League in 1988. Glenn Braggs, B.J. Surhoff, Dale Sveum and Joey Meyer - all members of a talented farm system - should be joined this year by one of baseball's top prospects, Gary Sheffield.

The fact that the results have begun to show on the field should come as no surprise. The Brewers had captured the "Organization of the Year" Award from Baseball America Magazine for an unprecedented three straight years from 1985-87, and won a similar honor from Topps, which recognized the Brewers farm system as the best in baseball in 1987. That is the eighth time overall in his career Dalton's organization has been honored as such.

Dalton, 60, is in his twelfth season as Milwaukee's Executive Vice President - General Manager, the only person to ever hold that title with the Brewers. When he first arrived on the scene in November of 1977, the Seattle Pilot/Milwaukee Brewer franchise had combined for a .420 winning percentage (614-846). Since Dalton has arrived, the Brewers have compiled a .528 winning mark (911-816), the sixth best mark in all of baseball. In that span [1978-88], the Brewers have been contenders eight of eleven seasons, highlighted by an Eastern Division Second Half Championship in 1981 and the American League Pennant and a World Series appearance in 1982.

All the talent in the world is useless without leadership and that is another area where the Brewer General Manager has developed a fine record. He tabbed a then little known Tom Trebelhorn to lead the current, young Brewers to prominence and also gave Earl Weaver, George Bamberger, Buck Rodgers and the late Harvey Kuenn their first managerial jobs. All have won some Manager of the Year honors, including Bamberger, Kuenn and Trebelhorn with the Brewers.

In some 23 years as a general manager with the Baltimore Orioles, California Angels and the Brewers, Dalton has a .529 winning percentage (1934-1721), including a superb .603 mark (582-383) with the Orioles. He has earned The Sporting News Executive of the Year Award twice - in 1970 with the Orioles and 1982 with the Brewers. Dalton began his baseball career with the Orioles as Assistant Farm Director (1953), Farm Director (1961-65) and Vice President of Player Development (1966-71), winning four pennants ('66, '69-71) and two World Championships ('66 & '70). He spent the next six seasons (1972-77) as the Executive Vice President & General Manager of the Angels before joining the Brewers.

During his career, Dalton has acquired players who have become Cy Young Award winners, MVP recipients, 20-game winners, home run champions and Nolan Ryan, the all-time major league strikeout leader and record-holder with five no-hitters.

Dalton, a 1950 graduate of Amherst College, is a former sportswriter for the Springfield (MA) Daily News, a position he held while in high school and college. While serving in Japan and Korea as a First Lieutenant in the Air Force, he earned a Bronze Star for his work as a combat press officer during his 37-month tour of duty.

Harry and his wife, the former Patricia Booker, have been married for 27 years. They have three daughters, Kim, 26, a University of Arizona graduate, Cindy, 23, a graduate of the University of Richmond, and Debbie, 21, a senior at Tufts University in Medford, Massachusetts.

SCORING RULE - PINCH HITTERS

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up). A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a designated hitter only.

THE BREWER LOGO

The Milwaukee Brewers logo is beginning its 12th year of existence, following its selection from over 2,000 entries in a month-long contest that was open to the public, both amateur and professional, in October and November of '77. Tom Meindel, an Art History student at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, designed the logo and earned the $2,000 first prize. The logo combines the lower case letters "m" and "b", the club's initials to form a baseball mitt.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Only three Milwaukee Brewers have ever hit for the cycle in a game: Mike Hegan [1976], Charlie Moore [1980] and Robin Yount [1988]. Hegan managed to hit a double, homer and a triple off Detroit's Mark "The Bird" Fidrych on September 3, 1976 in Tiger Stadium and completed the task by hitting a single off Bill Laxton. He finished the day with four hits in five at-bats including a walk, two runs scored and six RBIs. Moore hit for the cycle on October 1, 1980 at California, singling off Ed Halicki, homering off Chris Knapp, tripling off Dave Schuler and finally doubling off Mark Clear. He went four-for-five in the game with three RBI and two stolen bases, capping off the best single game performance of his career. On June 12, 1988, in Chicago, Yount became the last Brewer to accomplish the feat, singling and homering off Joel Davis, doubling off Bill Long and tripling off Steve Rosenberg, finishing the game with a walk and a club recording-tying four runs scored.

MILWAUKEE BREWER PLAYERS WITH 200 HIT SEASONS

Three players have surpassed the 200 hit mark in one season while wearing a Brewer uniform, led by Cecil Cooper, who accomplished the feat three times. Cooper set a club record in 1980 when he pounded out 219 hits and he also accomplished the feat in 1982 (205) and 1983 (203). Robin Yount (210) and Paul Molitor (201) have also accomplished the feat, as Yount, Cooper and Molitor finished 1-2-3 in the American League in hits in 1982, marking the first time that has happened since the 1915 Detroit Tigers.

Robin Yount	210	1982
Cecil Cooper	205	1982

From 1980-88, the 200 hit mark was tied or surpassed 37 times by 23 players, led by Wade Boggs, who has accomplished the feat six times. Don Mattingly, Tony Gwynn, Kirby Puckett and Cecil Cooper have done it three times.

TELEVISION INFORMATION ANNOUNCERS

JIM PASCHKE

Veteran Milwaukee sportscaster Jim Paschke begins his third season on the Brewer broadcasting crew. Jim will be handling play-by-play duties with Pete Vuckovich on WCGV Channel 24 and the Brewer television network. In addition to his baseball duties, Jim is also the voice of Milwaukee Bucks basketball, also on WCGV-TV. Jim comes to the Brewers with an extensive sportscasting background. Since 1980 he had been anchoring the sports desk at WITI-TV in Milwaukee, eventually being named sports director in 1984. A versatile talent, Jim's previous play-by-play experience includes Wisconsin Badger football and basketball, Milwaukee Admirals hockey, Marquette University basketball and CART-ASA-NASCAR auto racing. Paschke has also served as a radio replacement commentator for Brewer games, and as a sideline analyst for ABC-TV in the United States Football League. Before coming to Milwaukee, Jim worked at TV stations in Madison, Wisconsin, Peoria, Illinois, and Sioux City, Iowa. A finalist for the 1985 Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year, Jim has been honored by the Badger Chapter of American Women in Radio and Television as Newscaster of the Year. He is also a 4-time United Press International and 2-time Milwaukee Press Club winner of Best TV Sports Report. A Minnesota native, Jim, his wife, Debbie, a weekend anchorwoman at WITI-TV 6, and son, Michael, currently reside in the Milwaukee area.

PETE VUCKOVICH

Pete Vuckovich, a key member of the Milwaukee Brewers championship teams, begins his first season as a color commentator on the WCGV television team. Vuckovich, who has had previous on-the-air experience doing local radio sportscasts for WKLH, had handled color commentary on Brewer cable in 1983 when he was sidelined with injuries. He played eleven seasons in the major leagues with the Chicago White Sox, Toronto Blue Jays and Brewers in the American League and the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League. He came to the Brewers from the Cardinals on December 12, 1980. "The Trade" put Vuckovich, Rollie Fingers and Ted Simmons in Brewer uniforms and set the stage for their championship seasons in 1981-82. "Vuke" compiled a .762 winning percentage [32-10 record] and a 3.42 ERA those two years. He went 14-4 with a 3.55 ERA and tied for the league lead in victories as the Brewers won the Second Half Eastern Division Title in 1981. Then, the following year, he went 18-6 with a 3.34 ERA and won the Cy Young Award as the Brewers captured the American League Pennant and went on to appear in the World Series. He finished with a 40-26 record [.606] and a 3.88 ERA in six seasons with Milwaukee, as arm problems limited him to 31 games his final three seasons and forced his retirement before the 1987 season. He compiled a 93-77 record [.547] record and a 3.66 ERA overall in 286 major league appearances, including a 54-38 [.587] mark and a 4.03 ERA in 175 American League games. Upon retiring, Vuckovich accepted a position as manager of Serb Hall, a popular local banquet facilities establishment. He lives in Hales Corners, Wisconsin with his wife, Anna, and sons, Lazo, Pete, Jr. and Damian.

FACTS ABOUT COUNTY STADIUM

The site for County Stadium was officially selected on January 11, 1949, with the initial construction beginning on October 19, 1950. The stadium's original seating capacity of 28,111 permanent seats and 7,900 portable seats had a total capacity of 36,011 for the stadium's first event: an exhibition baseball game between the Milwaukee Braves and Boston Red Sox on April 6, 1953.

On October 6, 1953, the construction of additional permanent seating was approved, increasing the capacity to 43,394 for the 1954 baseball season. The outfield wall was constructed in 1961 and permanent bleachers were added in centerfield during the 1961 season. In 1962 the moving ramps were installed and in 1964 improvements for television and photographic facilities and the erection of temporary bleachers were completed, bringing the total number of bleacher seats to 10,591.

Additional improvements included a remodeled football pressbox in 1972; a new lighting system in 1973; additional seating (3,400) in 1974; a remodeled baseball pressbox in 1974; and additional seating (4,400) in 1975, bringing the capacity to the present 53,192.

In addition, the Milwaukee Brewers built a new electronic scoreboard in April, 1980 and an outdoor scoreboard in April, 1984, both of which were donated to Milwaukee County. The most recent addition occurred in 1986, when permanent cement bleachers were constructed.
